D@ngerous Waters

I see you are back again for another adventure into the mindless realm of CodeBoy. Put the Hunter S. in the CD drive and I should be able to make it through this without straying too far. By the way, are any of you seeing those giant bats? My lawyer has advised me to write this intro at break-neck speed, throwing caution – and a few Portuguese Cartel members – to the wind. I am once again completely oblivious to what month, day or state we happen to be in, but I'll let nothing stop me from writing this senseless drivel. There go those bats again!

Anyway, Christmas is on the way, and that should mean something to someone. DexDrive, PC GameShark and the TremorSlacks should all be filling the shelves at your neighborhood swap meets. Forget transition; let's just keep going with it. I've been having a blast playing Metal Gear Solid, which should be in all of your hands by now. It's absolutely imperative that this game be played, non-stop, for the next 48 hours. Trust me; just do what I say. You'll understand, and coincidentally it's the only way to make the bats stop.

I'd like to take this time to invite any of you to participate in the great "Lunch with CodeBoy" contest. All you need do is make it to Hunt Valley, Maryland and have a few bucks and we'll head off to the nearest pit-beef joint. This is for real. If you show up, I'll allow you the pleasure of dining with a slightly sweaty CodeBoy. Just don't bring any bats.

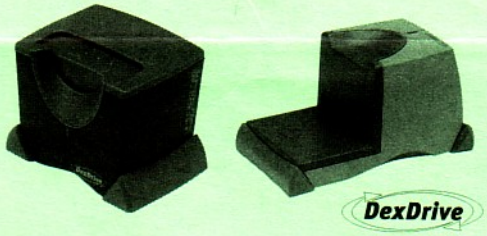
InterAct will bring gaming to a whole new level with the release of several products – just in time for the Holidays! Make sure you ask Santa to leave a few of these hot new peripherals under your tree this year, or else…



DexDrive Is Here To Save You All!

The DexDrive site is up and running, check it out at www.dexchange.net to see what you're missing. The PlayStation version is out now and the Nintendo 64 version is coming soon! If you have your DexDrive, go there and download every save on the site, post a few saves, enter the contests, check out the save of the week and send Timmy an e-mail. Check out page 7 in this issue for more info on this exciting new peripheral.

DANGEROUS WATERS '99

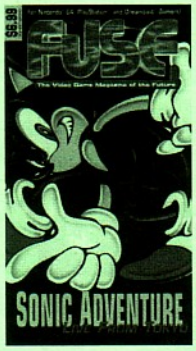
We're starting '99 with a bang! After this issue, Dangerous Waters will be revamped with more info and codes and will also smell like cinnamon. Don't worry, we'll still have that idiot, CodeBoy, blabbing about whatever he can type that day. We'll be adding a bunch of stuff that you, as a gamer, will definitely want to know about. So, if your subscription is running out, re-subscribe now!

There's Gold In Them, There Controllers!

We assume that anyone who has Zelda: Ocarina of Time must have pre-purchased it for the special gold cart. Well, it's time to accessorize with limited edition, matching gold SuperPad 64s and memory cards. The SuperPads are fully licensed by Nintendo, so while you're looking good, you can feel confident in your pad's performance.

Save The Day, With Character Memory Cards!

OK, we know, another stupid headline, but what can you do? Lara Croft, the first of many Character Memory Cards, is out now. Each card has 15-blocks of memory and a butt-load of personality. Look for Goldberg and something Solid in the near future! Sports memory cards are on their way, too. Select cards will be available for PlayStation and Nintendo 64.



Fuse, It Has Moving Pictures!

That's right, it's a videogame magazine on a VHS cassette. This means that you can see the games in action, rather than looking at still screenshots. Fuse is in videogame stores everywhere, so go get one! Fuse is produced by Thin Ice Media and distributed by InterAct. You will be getting completely unbiased information on everything that's going down in the gaming community, on a video with moving pictures. Plus, the images move. Did we mention that yet?

In the days before the final transformation, John had become more and more skeptical. Minute details that had initially been overlooked had just surfaced, and were slowly adding up. At first it seemed to be the only answer, a true "way out." But upon further examination there were certain factors that just didn't fit–all were discovered conveniently after the agreement had been made, the contract signed and the appointment confirmed. There was no way out though, and John knew it. Within mere days he would be receiving a GameShark T-shirt. Send a $12.00 check or money order to: InterAct Accessories, Inc., ATTN: RAY RAY, 10999 McCormick Road, Hunt Valley, MD 21031. No need for postage, we disposed of all the bodies.

Issue #1	Maybe if you're lucky!
Issue #2	Codes for Toshinden, Krazy Ivan, The Horde, NBA Jam, MK3 and other games which are considered primitive to today's games.
Issue #3	Codes for Cybersled, Resident Evil, Agile Warrior, Iron Storm, Virtua Fighter 2 and others, which are still thought of as dated, but nonetheless fun.
Issue #4	I'm not going to tell you what games are in issue #4 because I don't have to!
Issue #5	Codes for Alien Trilogy, Primal Rage, Bogey Dead 6, Tekken 2, Virtua Fighter Kids.
Issue #6	Codes for Dark Forces, Fighting Vipers, Final Doom, Sonic 3-D Blast, NFL '97 and Twisted Metal 2.
Issue #7	Codes for Andretti Racing, Madden '97, Soviet Strike, King's Field 2, MK Trilogy and Rally Cross.
Issue #8	Codes for games, all right!
Issue #9	Codes for Rage Racer, Psychic Force, Tenka, Contra, Battle Stations and Andretti Racing.
Issue #10	Nothing at all, not a single code. Except for FF VII, Porsche Challenge, Manx TT Superbike, Warcraft II and Top Gear Rally.
Issue #11	Codes for Bushido Blade, Colony Wars, Nightmare Creatures, Last Bronx, Resident Evil, GoldenEye and Duke Nukem 64.
Issue #12	Codes for MRC, San Francisco Rush, Wave Race 64, Alundra, NBA Live '98 and Parappa the Rapper.

Hey, Kato here. CodeBoy asked if I would fill up some space on this issue due to his sudden lack of creativity. No, I do not know what caused it but he looks terrible. Anyway enough about him. I don't know about you readers, but I have been looking forward to some new releases for some time. With hot titles like Metal Gear Solid by Konami, Tenchu by Activision, and Tomb Raider III from our friends at Eidos, this promises to be one of the best release seasons yet! And let us not forget this spring when Rare (the creators of Goldeneye) should release Perfect Dark, a new shooter using the Goldeneye engine. Thirdly, SEGA's new system, the Dreamcast, hit the market in Japan in late November/early December and hopefully it will arrive in the US by next fall. What a great time to be working for a videogame company! Well, that is all I have been thinking about lately. I think CodeBoy's brain just exploded inside his head; he shouldn't be bleeding from the ears like that, should he? Anyway, you all enjoy the Holidays.

nÉW PériPHëR@|: DexDrive

Hey-Check out how you can use the DexDrive with some of the hottest PlayStation games!

Gran Turismo

Multiple levels and tracks can be saved, along with car customizations and licenses.

Make everyone suck down your exhaust then claim your bragging rights by posting all of your licenses, lap times and replays using the DexDrive.

Tenchu

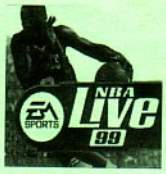
Multiple levels that can be saved to a memory card.

Shh! You're a ninja and some unsuspecting samurai is right around the corner. Too bad he doesn't have a DexDrive so his friend could send him a SAVE. Poor Samurai. Oh well, it's throat-slittin' time.

WWF Warzone

Contains a Create-A-Wrestler feature and tournament mode that can be saved to a memory card.

Post your craziest looking wrestler on our website or download somebody else's. Imagine: The Undertaker versus Elvis in a cage match. AWESOME!!



NBA Live '99

Features Create-A-Player, Create-A-Team. Downloadable team rosters.

Does that NBA Lockout have you down? Tired of multi-millionaires bitchin' about money? Well cheer-up buckaroo, the DexDrive will make sure that you and your rosters are up-to-date by letting you download team rosters. See, the DexDrive makes it all better.

Armored Core 2: Project Phantasma

Contains a Create-A-Mech feature along with a graphics workshop where the user can also personalize logos for his mech.

This is the perfect opportunity for you to show off that bad-ass mech that you created and show off your funky fresh emblem. Forget all that, just don't make me fight 9-Ball again!

Dragon Seeds

The game reads data from a memory card and then creates dragons of different sizes, shapes and abilities.

Think Monster Rancher, but with memory cards. Send friends new save data and create new dragons everyday!

Metal Gear Solid

Multiple levels and weapons that can be saved onto a memory card.

This game is as challenging as people have said so are definitely going to get stuck in certain areas. If you can get by, it's up to you to share your game saves and help others. But keep quiet, the guards might hear you!

Monster Rancher

The game reads data from a CD and creates monsters of different sizes, shapes and abilities.

Think Dragon Seeds but with CDs. Train 'em, Fight 'em, Freeze 'em and now download 'em from the Internet.

Knockout Kings 98

Create-A-Boxer feature and Career Mode can be saved.

Ali, Holyfield, De La Hoya, Sugar Ray.... Hey where's Tyson? Sorry kid, he's not in this game, but check the Internet, someone will make him and post him using the DexDrive.

Spice World

Players can invent creative dance beats and then make their favorite Spice Girl dance in a music video.

C'mon...admit it. You know you've had dreams of watching Posh do her wiggle, her shake, her FORBIDDEN DANCE!

Madden '99

Create-A-Player and Create-A-Play features are present. Rosters and Seasons are customizable and can be saved onto a memory card, as well as Franchise mode.

You think you've created the perfect playbook filled with money plays? Well, prove it. Use the DexDrive to e-mail those plays to the Chicago Bears offensive coordinator. He needs the help.

Tomb Raider III

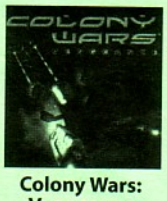
Multiple levels and weapons that can be saved onto a memory card.

Lara loves the DexDrive, and so will you. Now, Lara loves you.

NCAA Football '99

Create-A-Player and Create-A-Play features are present. Rosters, Replays, and Seasons are customizable and can be saved onto a memory card, as well as games played in Dynasty mode.

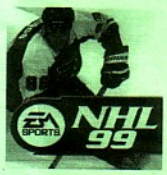
See the witty explanation above, but replace "Chicago Bears" with the "Southern Illinois Salukis."



Colony Wars: Vengeance

Multiple levels and weapons that can be saved onto a memory card.

Wow! The first Colony Wars was huge, and this one is going to be even bigger. So, if you miss one mission or 100 missions, don't worry, just download a mission with the DexDrive.



NHL '99

Create-A-Player and customizable team rosters. Seasons and tournaments can be saved onto a memory card.

Let's take a break from the DexDrive for a moment and reminisce on what a great game NHL '98 was. Well, NHL '99 is twice as good! Now that the game is out, you can wipe your opponents off the ice!

Moto Racer 2

Create-A-Track feature will be HOT!

After you have beaten the tracks in this game both forward and back, make your own track and race. Better yet, race on someone else's track, all they have to do is e-mail it to you.
